

JOHN MASKELL SENT OFF

Woking 2,
Wycombe Wanderers 0

JOHN MASKELL, Wycombe's 24-years-old goal-keeper, became the second Wanderers player to be sent-off this season after a flare-up in the Wycombe Floodlight League Cup encounter at Woking on Tuesday evening.

The incident occurred after 15 minutes of the second half. Maskell had left his goal to gather a through ball when he was harassed by outside-right Williams.

The referee awarded a free kick in Maskell's favour and as Williams turned he appeared to kick the Wycombe keeper.

Maskell retaliated and lashed out at Williams, before colleagues from both sides could part the two players. The referee booked both players before ordering them from the field.

TENSION

As a result of this flare-up some tension crept into the game and the referee was unable to keep it in check. Keith Samuels went in goal and was soon picking the ball out of the net after a slip by Eyres let through a Woking forward.

In the first half Wycombe had dominated the match but slack finishing up front was the main reason why they could not capitalise on their mid-field superiority.

Just before the interval the Wanderers conceded a simple goal to put Woking in command. Wycombe's chief striker Tony Horseman was reduced to half-pace during the match after receiving a heavy bang on the shoulder he injured recently.
